

Dean & Wood Ltd
Vacancy

Trainee Sales Engineer

Canning Town, London

Dean & Wood, a leading wholesaler to the refrigeration and air conditioning industry, is looking for an ambitious Trainee Sales Engineer to join our team. We are one of the longest established wholesalers in the industry, and with 15 branches throughout the UK we continue to go from strength to strength.

This is a great opportunity to join a dynamic and forward thinking business.

The Trainee Sales Engineer will be based from our Canning Town branch.

You will promote and develop the sale of the complete range of the company's products through the branch network.

You will be willing to undertake the company's own in-house Sales Engineer training programme, equivalent to NVQ Level 2 qualification in Refrigeration & Air Conditioning, working towards becoming a Sales Engineer.

We are looking for an ambitious and self-motivated individual, with a common sense approach, who is able to work on their own but also as part of a team. You will have a passion for high standards, with excellent communication skills.

Previous sales experience is not essential as training will be provided.

You will need to be computer literate and have a current driving licence.

A competitive salary and benefits package is offered.

This is an excellent opportunity for someone looking to embark on a successful career in sales with a truly market-leading business.
